

Thank You!

A big thanks goes out to all of our sponsors for supporting this event. Without your participation this project would not be possible. In addition, a very special thank you to all of the talented artists! Your generous donations of original art have helped us turn the whole town into a work of art.

What is ZAAC? The Zumbrota Area Arts Council is a non-profit charitable organization that encourages the production, performance and appreciation of the arts. Here in Zumbrota, Minnesota, we consider ourselves incredibly lucky to be surrounded by very talented and creative people. We work to share our area's artistic wealth, believing a vibrant arts organization is critical to a community's health and energy. Great art, music, writing, and theater can happen anywhere - even in small communities like Zumbrota and the surrounding area! Come visit. Get involved. We guarantee you'll be surprised.

Zumbrota Area Arts Council: Bringing art to the streets of Zumbrota!

The streets of Zumbrota will once again become a public art gallery for the summer of 2018. Twenty-two banners featuring the work of talented local artists will brighten the city streets. The banners will be displayed on light poles on Main Street in downtown Zumbrota from June through mid-October. All of the original artwork which inspired these banners will be on display at sponsoring businesses, Zumbrota City Hall, and the Zumbrota Public library throughout the summer.

In 2011 ZAAC purchased the historic State Theatre in Zumbrota. Proceeds from the ART on MAIN project will help fund the theatre restoration project.

Closing Reception & Art Auction - Friday, October 26, 2018

5:30 - 8:00 p.m. - Zumbrota VFW Banquet Hall

Where will you be the evening of October 26, at 5:30 p.m.? We hope you'll join the rest of Zumbrota at the ART on MAIN Closing Reception & Art Auction. There will be live music, food, an auction of items and experiences, and best of all - a silent auction for the original art and banners themselves.

Can't attend but want to place a bid? No problem - we'll send a proxy. To view the art online, request a proxy bid, request tickets, and for all other information, contact Roxanne, 507-273-8634. Don't miss this local celebration of the arts!

October Gold

oil on canvas

Judi Alme

“The vivid, clear blue sky of Minnesota in October is always a great contrasting background for the almost electric glow of autumn leaves.”

Dave Zimmerman, CPA

Encore

Fiber

Sandra Borgschatz

“Quilting and dancing are two things that feed my soul. If needle and thread or tap shoes and pointe shoes are your thing, always do it the best you can. Whatever you choose to do, do it with passion because you never know when that extra bow will present itself!”

Countryside Lawn & Landscape, Inc.

Mysterious Moon

oil on canvas

Colleen Cosgrove

“I do my best work when I am exploring a creative idea, capturing a beautiful moment, or relating a visually-compelling experience. I work exclusively in oils, whether working on location en plein air or in my studio from natural objects or reference photos.”

Zumbrota Ford

Celtic Dog Flight

oil

Greg Finnegan

“Inspired by the Book of Kells, I thought these bold Celtic dogs would be a fun colorful addition to Zumbrota’s Main Street.”

Eagle

acrylic on canvas

Mary Liffbrig

“I am a self taught artist that paints wildlife and animals in both acrylic and oils. I chose the eagle for this years banner because of its magnificent wing span.”

Busby Hardware and Furniture

Zumbro River Bend

acrylic on canvas

Karen Kelle

“This is a view of God’s creation that I walk by quite often. I chose a quick impression because it could be recognized easily from a distance. I am inspired by color, composition and meaning in my art.”

Hinderaker Insurance

Behold

watercolor and pencil

Sarah Kenyon Nygaard

“Nature is great inspiration for imagination. Birds, insects and frog’s are full of character and it’s fun to imagine them in fanciful scenarios.”

Phenomenal Woman

Mock Orange Blossoms

oil on canvas

Connie Ludwig

“My mock orange bush has flowers that smell as good as they look. That is hard to convey in a painting, but I tried.”

Prairie Mist

textiles

Norrie MacIlraith

“I love working with all types of media. ‘Prairie Mist’ combines hand dyed textiles with commercial fabrics into an abstraction of the Echinacea flower—originally a photo I took and combines a number of application techniques.”

Cow Barn

oil on canvas

Kristine Meints

“I grew up with a love of old red barns in an era where nearly every farmer had at least a cow or two. Capturing this scene brings back fond rural memories.”

Summer Sunset

weaving

Connie Simonson

“Most of my work is done on a rigid heddle loom where I enjoy combining colors and textures to create unique and interesting fiber art. The inspiration for this piece was a stained glass window.”

Starry Night Pumpkin

watercolor

Linda Smith

“The soft shapes and orange color of pumpkins against a blue sky are pleasing to the eye and a good reminder that frosty weather is soon to come.”

Sponsored by Zumbrota Veterinary Clinic

Old Trucks

oil on canvas

Connie Stier

“Painting allows me to bend the rules of time. First to slow time down.... taking that time to see the colors and beauty that surround me every day, bringing cast offs from a different era back to life, then to stop time as I move that image to paper.”

Sponsored by
Starr Car Wash

Llamazing

oil on canvas

Kathleen Yennie

“How can you not love a Llama? This sweet little baby face creature stole my heart.”

Sponsored by
Edward Jones

Chameleon

oil on canvas

Yvette Martinez

“My paintings are part rational, part emotional. I invite the viewer to a new dimension within the surface of the canvas. I rely on my motivation and passion for learning new techniques, concepts and principles to always improve what I love to do: paint oils.”
