ZAAC Activity Updates

Committee reports:
Art in East Park - No report available. Brenda Lerum will be reimbursed for the $150 out-of-pocket expense from the event.

Music in the Park - Concerts will begin June 7 next year and continue for 10 weeks. Most sponsors have agreed to their evenings. Whitaker noted that the grant applied for has been approved. Reminder letters have gone out to sponsors who have not yet paid.

Art on Main - Bartsch talked about the project and reported revenue from the art and the gala netted $12,493.50. Bartsch told the board she will assist with the project next year, but will no longer chair the event as she has for three years. It has been very successful, fun and a great fundraiser. Specifics are included in a synopsis with the minutes.

Art Splash - Lomen reported a successful Art Splash with good publicity, good attendance and good weather. Most vendors were pleased with the turnout.

State Theatre

Building Project - Permits have been granted. Only footings are likely to go in this fall, with additional work on the building waiting until spring.

Budget - Quarterly budget information from Accountant Dave Zimmerman was handed out for study. Additional conversation and information will come in the future.

State Theatre Management Committee - Bartsch and Smith reported on the working retreat held in September.
Smith moved, Nilson 2nd, the hiring of a building operations person on a 6-month trial basis, to oversee some aspects of theatre management. Passed unanimously. Approval of a specific employee is pending an interview by the management committee.

Nilson moved, Kish 2nd, adoption of Item 1 as outlined by the Building Operations Committee, including some specifics of the job as a building operations person. Passed unanimously. Some specifics of the job are still to be determined, including some financial and purchasing oversight.

Smith moved, Whitaker 2nd, approval of a $100 gift card as thanks to Toni Smith who conducted two retreats for the management committee without reimbursement. Passed unanimously.

Smith moved, Nilson 2nd, permission for Doug Duncan to spend up to $2,600 to replace speakers needed to support bands in concert at the theatre. Passed unanimously.

Encore Fundraising - Part 2 - No new information.
